11 CAPSTACK PARTNERS, LLC, a
Delaware limited liability company.

12 Plaintiff,

v.
CAPSTAK, INC., a Delaware corporation,
Defendant.

CASE NO.: 3:18-cv-00007-RCJ-WGC

STIPULATED
PROTECTIVE ORDER

17 Pursuant to Rule 26(c) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, and with the consent of the 18 parties to this action, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED:

19 1. All documents, materials, items, and/or information which are designated as 20 confidential under the terms of this Protective Order, and contain or comprise confidential and 21 sensitive research, development or commercial information produced either by a party or by a 22 non-party shall be governed by this Protective Order.

23 2. Any information produced by any party or non-party as part of discovery in this 24 action may be designated by any party or the producing non-party as (1) "Confidential" or (2) 25 "Confidential-Attorneys' Eyes Only." As a general guideline, materials designated "Confidential" 26 shall be those confidential and sensitive things that may be disclosed to the parties for the purpose 27 of the litigation, but which must be protected against disclosure to third parties. As a general

1 guideline, materials designated "Confidential-Attorney's Eyes Only" shall be those confidential 2 and sensitive things of a financial, commercial, proprietary or technical nature which might be of 3 value to others, and which must be protected from disclosure to such party and/or third parties.
4 Absent a specific order by this Court, or written permission from the designating party, 5 information once designated as "Confidential" or "Confidential-Attorney's Eyes Only" shall be 6 used by parties solely in connection with this litigation, and not for any other purpose, including, 7 but not limited to, business, competitive, or governmental purpose or function, and such 8 information shall not be disclosed to anyone except as provided herein.

9 3. Any party or non-party wishing to come within the provisions of this Protective 10 Order shall designate, in writing, the documents, information, or portions thereof which he, she or 11 it considers confidential at the time such documents are produced or such information is 12 disclosed, or as soon thereafter as the person or entity seeking protection becomes aware of the 13 nature of the information or materials disclosed and sought to be protected hereunder. In the 14 instance of documents, the items produced must be marked "Confidential" or "Confidential-15 Attorneys' Eyes Only" by the producing party or non-party. In the instance of depositions, 16 counsel may, in the record of the deposition, designate the transcript or portion thereof as 17 "Confidential" or "Confidential-Attorneys' Eyes Only," and only the parties identified in 18 paragraphs 4 and 5 may then be present in the depositions. The witness under deposition or his 19 counsel may invoke the provisions of this Protective Order in a timely manner, giving adequate 20 warning to counsel for the party or non-party that testimony about to be given is deemed 21 "Confidential" or "Confidential-Attorneys' Eyes Only." The designations should be made on the 22 record whenever possible, but a party may designate portions of a deposition either 23 "Confidential" or "Confidential-Attorney's Eyes Only" provided written notice of such 24 designation is given to each party no later than (10) ten days following receipt of the deposition 25 transcript by the designating party.

26 4. Documents, deposition testimony, or answers to interrogatories stamped 27 "Confidential," or copies or extracts therefrom, and compilations and summaries thereof, and the 28

1 information therein, may be given, shown, made available to, or communicated in any way only 2 to the Court (including, but not limited to, the presiding judge, clerks, and court staff) and to the 3 attorneys of McDonald Carano and Brownstein Hyatt Farber Schreck, LLP and their full time 4 staff representing the parties hereto.

5. Documents, deposition testimony, or answers to interrogatories stamped 6 "Confidential-Attorneys' Eyes Only" or copies or extracts therefrom, and summaries and 7 compilations thereof, and the information therein, may be given, shown, made available to, or 8 communicated in any way only to (a) the Court (including, but not limited to, the presiding judge, 9 clerks, and court staff) as provided in Paragraphs 9 and 13; (b) the trial counsel designated on the 10 pleadings from the law firms of McDonald Carano and Brownstein Hyatt Farber Schreck, LLP 11 and their full time staff to whom it is necessary that the materials be shown for the purposes of 12 this litigation; (c) consultants as defined in Paragraph 6 hereof and pursuant to the provisions on 13 Paragraph 7 hereof.

6. For purposes of Paragraph 5(c) hereof, a consultant shall be defined as a person 15 who is not an employee of a party nor anticipated to become an employee in the near future, and 16 who is retained or employed as a bona fide consultant or expert for purposes of this litigation, 17 whether full or part-time, by or at the direction of counsel for a party.

7. The procedure for having a consultant approved for access to information 19 designated "Confidential-Attorneys' Eyes Only" shall be as follows:

20 (a) The party seeking to have a consultant, as defined in Paragraph 6 hereof, approved 21 shall provide the producing party with:

22 i) the name of the designated person; 23 ii) the present employer and title of said designated person; 24 iii) a resume or curriculum vitae of said designated person; 25 iv) a written acknowledgment, in the form of Attachment A hereto, signed by 26 the designated person for whom approval is sought, that the person has 27 read this Protective Order and agrees to be bound by its terms.

1 (b) Within five (5) calendar days after emailing the information (if to Brownstein 2 Hyatt Farber Schreck, to all of the following: mfrancis@bhfs.com; azorio@bhfs.com; 3 nlindsley@bhfs.com; and RenoIDFilings@bhfs.com; if to McDonald Carano, to all of the 4 following: jwoelfel@mcdonaldcarano.com; sferguson@mcdonaldcarano.com; 5 ehelms@mcdonaldcarano.com) the information and written acknowledgment described in 6 subparagraph (a), along with a notice quoting this Section 7 in the body of the email, the 7 producing party may object to the person proposed for approval if the producing party has 8 genuine reason to believe that there is a reasonable possibility that the designated person may use 9 information designated "Confidential-Attorneys' Eyes Only" for purposes other than the 10 preparation or trial of this case or that the person proposed is in a competitive position or works 11 for a competitor of the producing party such that they cannot avoid possible use of the protected 12 information. Objections must be based upon a legitimate good faith belief and shall not be made 13 for purposes of delaying approval of said designated person. If an objection is found not to be 14 made in good faith by the court, then the party whom the objection was made shall be entitled to 15 reasonable attorneys' fees and costs. Failure to object within five (5) calendar days to a person 16 proposed shall be deemed approval, but shall not preclude a producing party from objecting to 17 continued access by that person where facts suggesting a basis for objection are subsequently 18 learned by the producing party or its counsel.

1 person. The time periods are not to restrict either party from moving for a court order earlier if 2 the circumstances so require.

3 (d) The parties agree that the information identified above in subparagraph 7(a) in 4 most cases constitutes sufficient information from which to approve said designated person, but a 5 party may seek production of additional information if reasonably necessary to determine whether 6 to approve the designated person.

7 8. All "Confidential" and "Confidential – Attorneys' Eyes Only" information 8 covered by this order shall be kept in secure facilities at trial counsel's offices and in no event be 9 taken to or stored on the premises of a party without having first received written permission from 10 the party designating the document confidential, and access to those facilities shall be permitted 11 only to those designated persons set forth in Paragraphs 4, 5, and 6 of this Protective Order as 12 persons properly having access thereto under the appropriately designated degree of 13 confidentiality. The foregoing sentence does not restrict trial counsel from sending emails 14 containing "Confidential" information to their clients named in the above-entitled action or those 15 designated persons set forth in Paragraphs 4, 5, and 6 of this Protective Order. All counsel for the 16 parties who have access to "Confidential" or "Confidential – Attorneys' Eyes Only" information 17 and documentation under this Protective Order acknowledge they are bound by this Order and 18 submit to the jurisdiction of this Court for purposes of enforcing this Order.

19 9. No party or non-party may file any document containing any information or 20 exhibits designated by another party or non-party as "Confidential" or "Confidential - Attorneys' 21 Eyes Only" within the scope of this Order unless it is filed under seal. No party or non-party may 22 file any document containing any information or exhibits designated by the filing party as 23 "Confidential" or "Confidential -- Attorneys' Eyes Only" within the scope of this Order unless 24 the party concurrently or in advance of the filing seeks leave of Court. Notwithstanding any 25 agreement among the parties, the party seeking to file a paper under seal bears the burden of 26 overcoming the presumption in favor of public access to papers filed in court.

1 10. If any document or information designated to be "Confidential" or "Confidential-
2 Attorneys' Eyes Only" pursuant to this Protective Order is used during the course of a deposition 3 herein, that portion of the deposition record reflecting such confidential information shall be 4 sealed and stamped with the designated degree of confidentiality, and access thereto shall be 5 limited pursuant to the other terms of this Protective Order.

6 11. A party should designate as "Confidential" or "Confidential-Attorneys' Eyes 7 Only" only such information or documents as the party reasonably and in good faith believes 8 require and justify protection under this Protective Order. If, at any time during the pendency or 9 trial of this action, counsel for any party claims that counsel for any other party is unreasonably 10 claiming certain information produced herein to be confidential, objecting counsel may make an 11 appropriate application to this Court, with confidential portions thereof to be kept under seal, 12 requesting that specifically identified documents, information, and/or deposition testimony be 13 excluded from the provisions of this Protective Order or downgraded in terms of the degree of 14 protection provided. Before filing any such application, the party seeking relief shall confer with 15 the other party to determine whether the matter can be resolved by agreement. The prevailing 16 party in such a dispute shall be entitled to reasonable attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to Federal 17 Rules of Civil Procedure 37(a)(5).

18 12. The pretrial order submitted by the parties in this action shall address the treatment 19 at trial of documents, information or testimony designated "Confidential" or "Confidential-20 Attorneys' Eyes Only" pursuant to this Protective Order unless the confidentiality of such 21 information has been removed by agreement of counsel or by this Court in accordance with the 22 provisions of Paragraph 11 of this Protective Order.

23 13. At any hearing relating to this litigation prior to trial before any judicial officer, 24 subject to the rules of evidence and order of the Court, a party may use any "Confidential" or 25 "Confidential-Attorneys' Eyes Only" information or documents for any purpose, provided that 26 adequate prior notice of such use is given to counsel for the opposing party to permit the opposing 27 party the opportunity to obtain appropriate protection from the Court, including a request to the 28

1 Court that the courtroom be cleared and that the court employees be advised as to the terms of 2 this Protective Order. If any party reasonably anticipates that “Confidential” or “Confidential-3 Attorneys’ Eyes Only” information or documents will be presented in any hearing in this 4 litigation, it may request that the Court close the courtroom during such presentation. If the Court 5 denies any such request, the use of the “Confidential” or “Confidential-Attorneys’ Eyes Only” 6 information or documents in Court shall not affect its coverage by this Protective Order or 7 constitute a waiver of confidentiality with respect thereto.

8 14. The terms of this Protective Order shall apply to all manner and means of 9 discovery, including entry onto land or premises and inspection of books, records, documents, 10 and tangible things.

11 15. Unless otherwise permitted by statute, rule or prior court order, papers filed with 12 the Court under seal shall be accompanied by a contemporaneous motion for leave to file those 13 documents under seal, and shall be filed consistent with the court’s electronic filing procedures in 14 accordance with Local Rule 10-5(b). Notwithstanding any agreement among the parties, the 15 party seeking to file a paper under seal bears the burden of overcoming the presumption in favor 16 of public access to papers filed in court. Kamakana v. City and County of Honolulu, 447 F.2d 17 1172 (9th Cir. 2006).

18 16. The terms of this Protective Order do not preclude, limit, restrict, or otherwise 19 apply to the use of documents at trial.

20 17. Nothing herein shall be deemed to waive any applicable privilege or work product 21 protection, or to affect the ability of a party to seek relief for an inadvertent disclosure of material 22 protected by privilege or work product protection.

23 18. Any witness or other person, firm or entity from which discovery is sought may be 24 informed of and may obtain the protection of this Protective Order by written advice to the 25 parties’ respective counsel or by oral advice at the time of any deposition or similar proceeding.

26 19. This Protective Order shall be effective on the date entered by the Court.
27

1 20. All provisions of this Protective Order restricting the communication or use of 2 “Confidential” and “Confidential – Attorneys’ Eyes Only” information and documentation shall 3 continue to be binding after the conclusion of this action, unless otherwise agreed or ordered.
4 Upon conclusion of the litigation, a party in the possession of “Confidential” and/or “Confidential 5 – Attorneys’ Eyes Only” information and documentation other than that which is contained in 6 pleadings, correspondence, and deposition transcripts, shall either (a) return such documents no 7 later than thirty (30) days after conclusion of this action to counsel for the party or nonparty who 8 provided such information, or (b) destroy such documents within the time period upon consent of 9 the party who provided the information and certify in writing within thirty (30) days that the 10 documents have been destroyed.
